CLASSIFIED ADVERTISEMENTS

Herbert S. Houston, president of the Associated Advertising Clubs of the World, which will hold their great convention at Philadelphia, June 25 to 30, is a thorough believer in newspaper "want ads," for if it had not been for a little "want ad" he might not be presiding at this great business convention this sum-

Chicago newspaper. His hours were long and his pay envelope was about as fat as a match, as was the nature of editorial department envelopes in those times.

The little advertisement that so greatly influenced his career announced that a certain baking powder company wanted an advertising manager. Young Houston applied. He did not know much about advertising in those days, but he was bright, resourceful and self-

The exacting training of newspaper offices, which has been the foundation of so many successful careers in various lines, stood him in good stead, and he rose
